PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

On this day and in this moment of prayer we remember those who have special need and who look to You, gracious God, for the spiritual and emotional support that You alone can give. May Your hand of healing, Your words of compassion and mercy, and Your heart of love comfort and sustain all who turn to You in faith and trust. May they sense Your presence in their lives and may the power You showed in healing and restoring renew them in mind, body, and spirit. And may Your peace, O God, that passes all human understanding, be with them and remain with them now and evermore. Amen.
